

INFORMATION LETTER

The Tajik State University of Commerce and the Center for Legal Assistance for Entrepreneurship Development are planning to hold an expert round table with international participation “Taxation of real estate: national and international experience.”

Date and place: December 5, 2023, at 9.00, main building of the university, Dushanbe, Dekhoti ½ street. The languages of the Round Table are Tajik, Russian, English.

The purpose of the forum is to attract the attention of scientific and expert circles to current problems of real estate taxation and to develop informed proposals for its improvement.

Scientists, economists and lawyers, employees of scientific institutions, teachers of higher educational institutions, and practitioners who are interested in the topic under consideration are invited to the Round Table.

The final materials based on the results of review and preliminary testing will be posted in electronic format on the university website.

To participate in the planned event, you must send an application by November 25, 2023 (inclusive) to the coordinator’s email address science\_fc@mail.ru indicating your last name, middle name, academic degree, place of work, position held and topic of speech.

Please indicate the event code in the subject of the letter: EKS-NK-23. Upon receipt of information, the Organizing Committee checks whether the topic of the speech corresponds to the topic of the Round Table and, within two working days, sends a letter to the author’s email address confirming inclusion in the program or rejection, indicating the reasons for it.

An application sent after the deadline will not be included in the event program.

Sincerely,
Organizing Committee
